

Vanessa Amorosi, True To Yourself

Somewhere in the distance
I can see a mirror of myself
Who I hope to be someday
Fiddling my reflection always there but mean so hard to see
When it's so clear,
Clear to me that

When the world arises
Reach for higher ground
Use your fear of flying
Leave you down up in the ground

(CHORUS)

Sometimes you gotta look a little harder
Sometimes you gotta be, be smarter
Hold on just a little bit longer
Just be true to yourself
That time you'll be the only one standing Don't matter if the seat don't fit in Don't try to be anyone else
Just be true to yourself

Somewhere in the future
The past will show his face
And then it reflects what will you say
Be sure there's an answer
We have learn from my mistakes
Gotta to your best
To change you that

When the world arises
Reach for higher ground
Use your fear of flying
Leave you down up in the ground

(CHORUS)

We all fall, we all cry
Everybody hurt sometimes
We all lose, we all win
We all try again...
Be true to yourself

(CHORUS) x2

To yourseeee!!!!lffff.... yeahhhhhh...
True to yourself...
Ohohhhhh...
yeahhhhhh...
True to yourself...
True to yourself...
