

Vanessa Carlton, Come Undone

I've seen myself in a thousand faces
Strung out on life's path
I would add up what you mean to me
But I cannot do the math
And this fashionista's garden party
Well I had enough of that

'Cause the only one I come undone for is you
Yes the only one I come undone is you

But I'm a special lover sometimes
But you only touch a ghost
I'm a sycophantic courtier with an elegant riposte
And needless to say you're the one that I need the most

'Cause the only one I come undone for is you
Yes the only one I come undone for is you
Well the only one I come undone for is you

I know I'm done (I)
And now I see the truth
I know I'm done (I)
Come undone for you
And you've been gone for so long
Waiting here for you
You've been gone for so long
Come undone for you

There are people in this lifetime that we should never meet
'Cause to be here now without you
Well, my life's so incomplete
I'll tell you what you mean to me and maybe then you'll see
Ahhh
Ahhh, nahh

'Cause the only one I come undone for is you
Yes the only one I come undone for is you
Oh the only one I come undone for is you

No, no
