

Vanessa Williams, Let's Settle Down(Reprise)

About that dream of him and me,
in some little town,
I see the signs.
He's coming 'round.

To a song we can sing called "Happily Ever After";
quiet talks by the fire and a lifetime of laughter.
Oh can it be he's ready to settle down?

Just, take that one last giant step and you'll see we've found
A dream to share.
We're almost there
We'll settle down.
