

Vanilla Ninja, Crashing Through The Doors

1:

Standing with my face to the wall
Feels i`ve done the same before
Static motions in my head
But i`m told that love`s not dead
To get the cherry-tasting cream
Were crashing through the doors

2:

On the road to perfect world
Only dreams can lead the way
In between the twists and turns
All the secret answers lay
To get the cherry-tasting cream
We`re crashing through the doors

3:

Those that fail to learn from history
Can see the fire and ice collide
The endless game of hide and seek
Won`t help you cross the boarderlines
To get the cherry-tasting cream
We`re crashing through the doors
