

Vanilla Sky, Goodbye

If would be like followin a trend
Calling you would make no sense
If you don't care about december
I tell you summer erases your name
Usual session to drink alone
Keep on smiling trying to be nice
I will shortly write what i think
And be honest for just one night
You've been deserveing for a long time
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things that made you cry
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things you kept inside
It's time to say goodbye
To all those kisses and perfect nights
It's time to say goodbye
To all the promises that made you right
It's time to said away
For every day I felt so bad
For every "NO" that made me sad
You shot me twice and left me helpless
One for love and one for death
Don't hang up you can't right now
You know I've always been there for you
Don't wanna end this conversation
But being alone's never felt so good
You've been deserving for such a long time
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things that made you cry
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things you kept inside
It's time to say goodbye
To all those kisses and perfect nights
It's time to say goodbye
To all the promises that made you right
So prove I'm wrog so prove that I'm not alright
So tell me it's just me complicating
Holding on to a fanciful story
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things that made you cry
It's time to say goodbye
To all the things you kept inside
It's time to say goodbye
To all those kisses and perfect nights
It's time to say goodbye
To all the promises that made you right
It's time to sail away
It's time to sail away
It's time to sail away
It's time to sail away
