

Vanilla Sky, The Fight

Still, Everyone's waiting
For the fight to start
But no crowd is around
Pray that nobody's dying
This could last until the end of life
What if I say I don't wanna play your fighting game?
What if I say I don't wanna play your fucking game?
I'm not that kind to try to start a fight
Life is such a crime it's hard to get it right
But I feel like I'm the only one who's fighting to survive
Fear, Nothing that matters
I feel like nothing
Falling to the ground
Here drowning forever
I'm bleeding waiting
For the final round
What if I say I don't wanna play your fighting game?
What if I say I don't wanna play your fucking game?
I'm not that kind to try to start a fight
Life is such a crime it's hard to get it right
But I feel like I'm the only one who's fighting to survive
I cannot swear I won't give up the fight
Life is such a crime and it's hard to get it right
But I feel like I'm the only one who's fighting
to survive
What if I said that I might quit this game?
What if I say I'm running out of time?
Life is such a crime and it's hard to get it right still I try
I'm not that kind to try to start a fight
Life is such a crime it's hard to get it right
But I feel like I'm the only one who's fighting to survive
I cannot swear I won't give up the fight
Life is such a crime and it's hard to get it right
But I feel like I'm the only one who's fighting
to survive
