Vanishing Point, King of Empty Promises

Eyes forever seeing black, bring life into your lie Seething in your serpent skin, in dust you divide me Fooled, twisted, full of hate, torn in trusting me Fear instilled forever lying the truth will set you free

I'm on the other side Clouded are your days I give into new life I begin

Let go the feelings within now I'll believe Let go forever here and now And I'll believe

Torn in your memory, cast to the pits of black Walk alone or with me, pull the daggers from my back Hollow hearted, two faced, see the trust you stole from me This fear you hold forever I with truth now will set you free

I'm on the other side Darkened are your days I give in to new life I begin

Let go the feelings within now I'll believe Let go forever here and now And I'll believe
