

Vanna, Safe To Say

Lets leave this place behind destroy everything inside Whats it gonna take to make you feel alive (feel alive)
Whats it gonna take
To open up your eyes
To open up your eyes
It's time to get out of this town
This torture (this torture)
Your fear holds you down
Move forward
Move forward
Your silent sound
These words
Don't always come out right
But I feel that were wasting time
Letting go of our troubles were still holding tight
These words
don't always come out right
But I feel that were wasting time
Are we wasting our time
Are we still holding tight
It was all we felt
To look towards the sky
To breathe in the air
To be in the shadows
When the day ends
You've lost your pride
Wont you give up
I'm not giving up till the angels die we look to the sky
To the skies
To the skies
We've all had our enemies
We'll leave the past behind
I don't feel like losing sleep
I cant see it in my eyes
We've all had our enemies
I don't feel like losing sleep
I cant see it in my eyes
You can see it in my eyes
You can see it in my eyes
These words
Don't always come out right
Letting go of our troubles were still holding tight
All These words
I'll leave my heart here
by your bedside
If you swear that your eyes wont stray to be honest, open, and hoping,
To find the words to say
by your bedside
If you swear that your eyes wont stray

And honestly honestly I only let go for the sake of you
