Varathron, Deep Beneath An Ancient Dominion

(Previously unreleased)

The golden cities once ?Desperately loved to rose From fathomless grey mass - Blue lakes and abyssic mountains

Fear, for something that will gonna be Fear, for something that will never (gonna happen) Mercy and mighty echoes lamentation and tearing From a voiceless face (without ending)

The shining towers of Hy-Brasyl ?Earthy and heavenly paradise Where men walked with gods ?And with beasts of the forest

Time when springtime and harvest
Were as one; flowers and fruits ?Hung heavily on every bough
Like a dream beyond the dimensions
The wind was blowing like a lover touch
Caressing the highest towers
The mist like a sinful soul ?Was searching its salvation

The time when hands moved Only in grace and giving, the eyes smiled The lips spoke with love without shame

Spirits travelling on a labyrinth Without fear but passion ?Bravery without bloodshed

Pictures from the past ?Unspoken dreams of today Mysterious visions for the future It time you will learn from yourself
