

Varnadeau Jeni, Between You And Me

J. Varnadeau, W. Denton, C. Garret Matthew 13:44-46, Philippians 3:7-8, Psalm 73:25

She was drawn by the melody sounding all through the city streets oh, it echoed, so lovely she set her work aside left everything to find the creator of songs who captured her heart and brought her soul to life now there's nothing she wouldn't leave just to sit at His feet and to listen all day

Chorus

And that's how it should be between you and me

That I'd give all to be where you are To enjoy and to adore you with all of my heart

I see smiles from those who are near to you

I long for that same kind of peace 'Cause that's just how it should be between you and me

he searched expectantly in the sea of his dreams through his feelings and other swimming things

one day this fisherman found the only pool of truth around so he went away sold all he had just to buy this lake now he finds himself at the edge of the bank and he fishes all day
