

Varnadeau Jeni, Love Follows Through

D.K. McKelvey, E. Quiram, J.

Varnadeau

Ephesians 2:4-9, 2 Corinthians 5:14

did you believe

love was a bird to snare quickly before it flew?

only to find love couldn't be tamed, and love was hunting you

through the dark places inside of your heart

wherever you hide is not too far

so come into the light surrender in His arms

CHORUS

It keeps rushing in

there's no end

so relentless

love will pursue

even when hearts fall away from truth

love follows through

love could be earned like it was something you win or lose?

only to find you didn't deserve it, but love was winning you

though you tried

you never could be

justified

by the life that you lead

what you find

is grace for the weak

and love too deep to speak

BRIDGE

love never fails

it's as piercing as nails but more gentle than a summer rose

it covers your scars

and beckons your heart

open wide to

the lover of your soul
