

Varnadeau Jeni, Shadow

Zeph. 3:16&17

Jeni Varnadeau, Charles Garrett, Will Denton

Confusion covers my eyes

All I can do is wonder and ask "Why?"

And I am feeling boxed in

But your voice carries my soul

To where it's free and peaceful

CHORUS

In the midst of my deepest fear

You whisper words that bring me hope

And in the middle of my midnight

Your songs of love bring light into my shadow

You see me restless inside

But you bring me under your wings to hide

Then you travel the depths

Grip the mountains in your hand

Too great to understand

The questions never end

But you're the answer that I seek

I will not fear for you are with me

Mighty to save

Your love quiets me

Rejoicing over me

You bring light into my shadow

Rejoicing over me

You bring light into my shadow
