

Varsity Fanclub, Right Back Where I Started

(Hey)

I thought I visited the past last night.

Got out some photos and went back in time.

If I had known what I do now, I wouldn't of let you go but I didn't know you was right.

I tried to tell you it's over, it's probably not.

You got a hook, let it sink girl. Double tied a knot.

So if you still care for me then tell me (Tell me)

Why'd I have to go away, run away.

I was stupid and scared, to afraid to show that I care.

Now theres no way to say the feelings are coming back.

Got me right back where I started.

Got me right back where I started.

It's been a year since you left me here.

I tried to act like I didn't care when you left.

I played it off like it's nothing but baby I was so wrong.

I keep holding on to the past.

I know I told you it's over, but we know its not.

You got a hook, let it sink girl. Double tied a knot.

So if you still feel for me then tell me (Tell me)

Why'd I have to go away, run away.

I was stupid and scared, to afraid to show that I care.

Now theres no way to say the feelings are coming back.

Got me right back where I started.

Got me right back where I started.

(Haha)

(See love is a long hard road but I ended up right back where I started)

So if you want to give trust a chance, you can trust me baby look in my eyes.

If we try no we won't fail cause this road is our destiny.

I think you were made just for me.

(x2)

Why'd I have to go away, run away.

I was stupid and scared, to afraid to show that I care.

Got me right back where I started.

Got me right back where I started.

Right back where I started.

Now it's okay to say, the feelings are coming back.
