

VAST, She Visits Me

she visits me
when I am weak
when I have nowhere to hide she always knows when I have someone and then she comes
she comes to torture me

when I am asleep
when I have nowhere to run she always knows when I have no one then suddenly
she's there to tempt me

from the corners of the past she won't let go of my spirit here she comes
she comes to haunt me

she comes she comes to haunt me she comes, to visit me
