

Vega 4, Satellite

Mr. green i think i find your face familiar you reminded me i know we're very similar fading out inside swallow all the shame and hide the hurt and pain satellite you're not alone

oh, we lose ourselves so easily

blue i know i'm you your shoulder to the world again paint it black and hide photograph the lies inside you're cracking up
