

VeggieTales, The New And Improved Bunny Song

bob: now kids we're gunna sing along with one of my favorite songs the bunny song jhon claud: misear bob we're not supposed to sing the bunny song bob: oh ho ho thank you for pointing that out jhon claud but this is the new and improved bunny song this is the one we're supposed to sing jhon claud: i see

the bunny

the bunny

woh i ate the bunny

i didn't eat my soup or my bread

just the bunny

the bunny

the bunny

oh i love the bunny

but now i feel real sick in the head from the bunny

i didn't eat my salad

i didn't eat my steak

i had too much candy and got a tummy-ache i need to eat good food to help me to grow i'll obey my momma cause she loves me so yah i'll go to church and i'll go to school

that stuff is important and i ain't no fool

i don't want no pickels

i don't want no honey

i just want a plate of a bucket of bunnies

i don't want a tissue

no no no girls

no that's wrong

i learned my lesson

oh you're gunna get tummy-aches now you stop singin that stuff listen here girls

oh no

the bunny

the bunny

the bunny
