

Velocity Girl, Crazy Town

i will say that i might over hear my love pretty little sister i give my body to i'm walking around this crazy town but all i fond the same old faces this crowd brings me down and if you think that's just wait about a few more hours in my book why be lazy i've been walking around through this crazy town let's just move up on to my overconscience money only appeals to lonely dudes
