

Velocity Girl, Pretty Sister

I know a place that I'm going to burn down
Let it go
I don't think I really want to Play again
Take me to the place
I used to love so much
I don't think I really to say it again
So alive
so in love
so live
Stroke me anywhere
And I'll be cold
Love comes down
And pushes to the middle of life
My love
Say it again
And I will follow you anywhere
My pretty sister
