

Velvet Acid Christ, Slut

well it may sound absurd i want to be a wreck for you smash out my honor on your floor fill up your bathtub with my moods well it may sound a little frightening i want to swallow all of your skin chew your soft tissue into ash beat your ego black and blue

i will be your doll
i will be your hole
i will crush your bones i will abrade your soul

i will be your toy
i will be your thing i will tear you down with the twist i bring

i will be your toll at the gates of hell that is what i'm for i will be your flesh

i will be your end then on to the next

i will start again
i will be your girl
i will remove your heart

i will burn your world
i will be your object tease and tear
i will be your "hell, i don't have anything to wear" i will be your slut i will be your bitch

i will be your never ending, unbefriending self-expending, moral-bending thorn
