

Velvet Belly, Into The Open

Not ready to forget
The taste of you yet
I don't know how
Cause I think I found myself
And nothing has remained
The same ever since

Now I'm ready to run
Follow you into the open
I'll take your hand and run
To somewhere I'm not broken

Now I wonder night and day
I wonder what to say
Cause who are you
Still a stranger but somehow too close
To ever let you go
And you know

Now I'm ready to run
Follow you into the open
I'll take your hand and run
To somewhere I'm not broken
