

Velvet Belly, Into The Wind

Skip the talk
Walk out in the night
It's a comfort it's all right
Echoes in the streets when you speak
The moon is up
All fights forgotten
We ran down with you
Arms like wings
Aeroplanes into the wind
Fresh and free
No worries no pleas
In this sweet night
Dizzy as we are
You hold me tight
Whisper in my ear
The best thing I can hear

That you love me still
You surround me still
And I love you still
I surround you still

And God is in the sunbeam
First ray of light
In the stillness we hear
And your hand in mine
And there's no need
To fall asleep
On a day like this
I see it in your eyes
Mesmerized
I feel it in your arms
A sense of calm
And every reason
I've been given
To be with you
I will keep you here

And I love you still
I surround you still
And you love me still
You surround me still
Yes
Oh, yes
Oh, yes
