

Velvet Belly, Little Big Mountain

It used to be a wilderness
A real pleasant place
When we were small
It was our castle
A kind of home
And now it's gone...
It's a shame
I didn't get back in time
Before they flattened our Little big mountain
To the ground

Some of us wouldn't stay and
Some couldn't leave
But when we were small
We didn't know
It would leave traces so deep
The memories...

That's why I'm back
