

Velvet Belly, Our Happiness

music : Velvet Belly lyrics : Anne-Marie Almedal

Something today
made me wonder Where you are Something today
made me wonder
I saw you in his eyes
And in his cautious smile
The memory of you never dies

If I could give some of my days to you Share some of your all this time with you I would

Something today made me remember
When you were near Something today made
me remember
I could not take my eyes away
And you were so close to me again
The memory of you will always stay

If I could give some of my
days to you
Share some of all
this time with you
