

Velvet Belly, Planted

music : Velvet Belly

lyrics : Anne Marie Almedal

Pretend I'm sleeping
Next to me he's still here
He came to take the rest of me
I just want to sleep and keep on dreaming
How did it come to this

Planted in you
Carried by you
Now it makes you want to hide
Planted in you
Carried by you
Now it breaks you down

Drifting through this quiet dream
Dream... now you've come to rescue me
And for a while
I've found peace
But he has come to wake me up

Planted in you
Carried by you
Now it makes you want to hide
Planted in you
Carried by you
Now it's always around
Planted in you
Carried by you
Now it breaks you down

Dream
This was never really meant for you
