

Velvet Belly, Restless

music : Velvet Belly / Erik Honore

lyrics : Anne-Marie Almedal

I'm just a gust of wind
The rattle in your window
I've come to wake you up
To say hello

I'm just a gust of wind
Bringing fresh air to breathe in
I've come to wake you up
To say goodbye

To leave you restless in the night
I'm here to remind you about
Your loneliness

I'm just a gust of wind
Maybe you think I'm evil
'Cause I come close
And then I go

And I leave you restless in the night
I'm here to remind you about
Your loneliness
