

Velvet Belly, Standstill

music : Velvet Belly lyrics : Anne-Marie Almedal

This day is gone
Nothing has been done
I have been waiting
And watching people
Passing by outside
I needed to hide
And to remember you

A day can be a year
Or just a short hour
Can be without any strength or power
But if you call
I could tell you all
What I've been thinking about

I was trying to be free
I did all I could just to be
And I reached out for you
To see who you are
