

Velvet Belly, To Feel The Love

Winter with night
Leaves from the sky
Outside there's a garden
Inside, what to do

Who doesn't understand
Things get out hand
Can't cry or smile
Can't run or settle down

Feel the love you know
Sense the skin you love
It's a dream you have
And a reason why
You gave your word and now it's time
Feel the love you know
And sense the skin you love

Feel so alone
Look through the rain
You know who to lean on
And there's nothing in the way

Just feel the love you know
And sense the skin you love
It's a dream you have
There's a reason why
You gave your word and it's time
Just leave the hurt behind
And free the sun to shine
