

Velvet Chain, My One Desire

My one desire
My human fire
When I saw you
I bit the wire

There's always been
More than you've seen
I can't live without you
Even when I dream

If you could only seen
What it means to me
To have you by my side
Makes everything so fine

Can't you see I can be happy
I could be sad
That all depends on
How much of you I get

But if you come on whole
I got something waiting
Oh waiting just for you
I know that you'll be there

So this is the story
This is your queue
If you know me
Then you know it's all about you

Why don't you come on home now
Where the fire's waiting
Don't you stay away
You know it makes me crazy, oh yeah
Oh yeah

My one desire
My human fire
When I saw you
I bit the wire
