

Velvet Revolver, Superhuman

I'm a superman
I wanna be your superman
I'm a superman
I wanna be your superman

What you get is a crash
Course to be a man
But a man is a
Destination never known
Sometimes dressed up like
A red hot lady in pumps
Don't think she can get enough

Always feel like she's Running on a hamster wheel
Getting high, crashing
Cars and making mistakes
Keeping her face
Packed with cocaine
Her face is numb
Your faith is gone

I'm travelling on now
I'm making plans now

Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal
Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal

Keep it comin' in a world
That's blown up wild
Keep it comin' in a world
That's bred her style
We're all runnin' from the Goose she's high on cocaine
There's a noose swimmin' right
Between her legs to her brain

We're all in need of
A superhuman woman now
We're all in need of
A superhuman woman now
To rodeo, rodeo, rodeo, rodeo
Throw the rope around her neck
And get the show on the road

I'm travelling on now
I'm making plans now

Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal
Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal

-Solo-

I'm travelling on now
I'm making plans now

What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough

What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough
What's she thinking
She'll never get enough

Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal
Cocaine, alcohol
Lady-lay, withdrawal
