

Vended, Asylum

Heart pumping the madness
Dilutions leading the status
Life's nothing but a lie
God couldn't be so blind
There's blood inside my throat
I'm in a fucking chokehold

Oh my, I cried staring in the face of death tonight
Denied my right to see a love and not a bite
I'm numb, succumbed to the shit my family overcome
I'm done, now run, fill me up asylum

I am not a pawn in the game
I'm just your fucking slave
Filled up with so much rage
Caught up inside this cage
You think I don't know pain
I feel like I'm going insane

Oh my, I cried staring in the face of death tonight
Denied my right to see a love and not a bite
I'm numb succumbed to the shit my family overcome
I'm done, now run, fill me up asylum

Nothing will change and that's okay
Cause everything just feels the same
When you end up like me just withered away
You're gonna feel the decay

Oh my, I cried
Oh my, I died
