

Vended, Burn My Misery

So, you wanna dance with the devil
Hell hound is out of his kennel
He's afraid, he's afraid!
Afraid of being hurt again
From a lie that he was lost within something's changed, as I feared
Visions getting cleared

Save me from my own misery
Save me from my own misery

I don't want to pry, but I hate my fucking life
That problem's only mine
I absorb everything and yet I know nothing, so what could feelings mean to me?
What was even love? I wore its disguise, then I had to run and hide
Maybe you are the key
But what do you mean to me?

His body's whole and broken
His memory twists and turns
He's not the kind you've seen before, the kind that's always wanting more
All he wants is peace of mind, peace and love from another night
I'm fine, I swear I'm fine, this is just my divine

Save me from my own misery
Save me from my own misery

I don't want to pry, but I hate my fucking life
That problem's only mine
I absorb everything and yet I know nothing, so what could feelings mean to me?
What was even love? I'm tired of rejections, I'm tired of it all
Maybe you are the key
But what do you mean to me?
Stay with me

Burn, burn, watch it all burn, burn
You know you love it when it hurts
Burn, stay with me and burn, burn
Burn
(Stay with me and watch it all burn)

I don't wanna hide
I'll say what's on my mind 'cause you feel the same as I
I say I wanna die but I know that if I fight I'll be without goodbyes
My feelings tend to blur
To hell with all the bullshit, I love it when it hurts
This song is my goodbye
This song is my goodbye to a life
Living a lie

I've been living a lie
You know you love it when it hurts
So stay with me and watch it burn
Burn
