

Vendetta Red, Accident Sex

I was fast asleep
Dreaming I was rain
I fell from clouds to touch your frame
But you just hid your face
Beneath your hands
Now delirium is soothing me
Just close your eyes
Go to sleep
I was holding on
Hanging by a thread
Clinging to three words you said
But words are meaningless in your absence
This violation's a victory
Just close your eyes
Go to sleep
(Go to sleep)
Delirium soothes me
And I'll keep your words
Close to me
This violation's a victory
Just close your eyes
Go to sleep
