

Vendetta Red, Seconds Away

Lead in your chest
Halo in water
Watch me drill holes in my head
Misunderstood
Meet me in moonlight
With your lover's heart in a box
Watch how the world pushes forward
Running like insects from God
You only want to be near Him
So you join in his crimson jihad
And they cast out the dark
With two stones and a spark
And you're seconds away from redemption
In your war with the dead
Had your breakfast in bed
Till you're seconds away from redemption
Seconds away
April came on
The pain was like knives
Digging right into my feet
Echoes of agony
Breaking my body
Till most of it's merely alive
Watch how the world pushes forward
Running like insects from God
You only want to be near Him
So you join in his crimson jihad
Cause they cast out the dark with two stones and a spark
And you're seconds away from redemption
Your war with the dead
Had your breakfast in bed
Till you're seconds away from redemption
Seconds away
Stand alone
Where you are
Stand alone
Where you are
Stand alone
Where you are
Cause they cast out the dark
With two stones and a spark
And you're seconds away from redemption
Your war with the dead
Had your breakfast in bed
You were seconds away from redemption
You're seconds away
You're seconds away
