

Venera, Beanstalk

Once upon a time
he saw this man on the street with mud on his feet and asked him what he sold
He said :

" I bring three magic beans
from far far away
They're the last ones that I've got
If you plant them in a pot
a stalk will grow Within the next couple of days
all that you have to do is make sure that it doesn't grow wild along with you "

But was no holding back
It grew into the sky
for some considerable time
Higher and higher
Untill he couldn't see the ground
Higher and higher
Never looked down
He left his property behind
All he cared about was to climb
his magic beanstalk friend He'll climb it to the end
Till the end