

Venera, Late Show

Every night
I watch the late show
And you know
my only dream
is to be there on the screen I'd chat a bit with Dave he'd listen to what I'd say and read my name
from a hidden frame
And pretend that he knows me He'd say I look like million bucks
Through he doesn't give a fuck about who I am About what I'm saying or what he thinks of me I just want to be on international TV
So a lot of people I don't know
can't see me
I wish to God
I was on Dave Letterman
I wish to God
And you can't blame me
I wish to God
I was on Dave Letterman
He's the most powerfull
and comical man
on american TV, D
Television rules
the world we know
And Letterman
sits at the throne till the break of Dave when the late late show comes to take my Dave away
