

Venus, Daystar

And your body likes mine
And we stand
In this burning desert
On the edge
On the edge
In the night I know
You'll find the end
The end

What a nightmare
You were sinking in
Watch those children
Swimming in the sand

And your story meets mine
And we have
Thoughts with no words
Of love
And we share
And we share
Loneliness when we fail
When we're scared
When we're scared

Emptiness will take us
On its way
And our breath will take us
To the day

Emptiness will take us
On its way
And our breath will take us
To the day
