

Venus In Flames, Notes Of Tenderness

Gravity is after you
Sucking you under
You used to be a happy kid
Eyes full of wonder

Now you seem to be aware of dangers everywhere
It slowly paralyses you
Helpless like a paper tiger too close to the fire
Burns all over your soft paw

I'm the one who's always in trouble
You're the one who sticks with your man
Never giving up on your lover
Well I hope you know
I believe in you

Happiness is a drag clouding your vision
Foggy notes of tenderness are making you dizzy

Clueless
Always hesitating
You might be overrating the weight of all the little things
Hoping for a sudden breakthrough I pull you up
And take you anywhere you want me to

I'm the one who's always in trouble
You're the one who sticks with your man
Never giving up on your lover
Well I hope you know
I believe in you

Well I should be on my way
But something makes me stay
I can't let go of you
God I can't let go of you
