

Venus, Kallenovsky

My eyes scan your faces
And you immerse yourself
Into my fear and deeply
I know you'll drive me crazy

And I perceive love in a way
I cannot feel, I can't bear
You know I feel paranoid
You grind my life cause you're scared

Keep driving, stop thinking
Let's get into the night
Your sadness is so precious
Cause we're allowed to die

I won't restrain myself again
This is my life, my own crime
You know I feel paranoid
You grind my life cause you're scared

If you conceive I'm by your side
If we both hate stars and stripes
