

Venus, Love And Loss

How come we hurt so deeply
How come we do
How come we hurt so deeply
Can we be so cruel
How come we hurt so deeply
How come we hurt so deeply

How come we love so strongly
How come we do
How come we love so strongly
Can we be so true
How come we love so truly
How come we love so truly

And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I'm like you
And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I love you

How come we learn so slowly
How come we do
Can you see how slowly we learn
And that's we're clumsy, too
How come we learn so slowly
How come we learn so slowly

How come we hope endlessly
How come we do
How come we trust so easily
Like I trust you
How come we hope endlessly
How come we hope endlessly

And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I'm like you
And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I love you

And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I'm like you
And we feel so lonely
And I feel like I love you

Why do we sickly destroy stories we built
Why do we spoil love that we thought we believed in
Why do we still sickly destroy stories we built
Why do we spoil love when we think we believe in..
