

Venus, Navajo Dream

They want me to dance, man
They want me to dance
They want me to dance
And I get scared
They want me to dance, man
They want me to crawl
They want me to go down
And I crawl again

I feel like I'm a cat, man
Can't feel like I'm a man
I get out and I look down at my legs
I feel like I'm a cat, man
And they believe I dance
I get out
I get out of their brains

Everything's ok, I lost my way

They stop me at the top, man
They stop me at the top
They stop me
Stop
And try again
I rush down to the bottom
And I get at the back
I slump down in the middle of the crowd

I turn round and I watch, man
And I turn round again
I'd like to believe it
But I can't
She gets me on the run, man
Shet gets me with a gun
She holds onto the railing
And she bends

Everything's ok, I lost my way

I feel like I'm a cat, man
Can't feel like I'm a man
