

Venus Outback, Concerning Lipstick Cannibals

I've seen your cannibal eyes
The hungry replies
Cause I'm your favourite prize
A pretty surprise
I've got electric supplies
And the switch to the sun
Pretty one

So you'll devour my thoughts
You'll smile and behave
Don't even care if you're caught
My favourite slave
You'll do just anything I say
If you can stay
You're saved

Cause you've got nothing to win
And nothing to lose
No, you've got nothing but sin
And no-one to use
Cause you've got nothing within
And none to amuse
To abuse
Abuse

Rip it out now
Take another stand
Rip the doubts out
And save what beauty's done
Pretty one

I'll swallow your light
As I'm tasting your lips
And I will keep it all night
While I'm grabbing your hips
But throw it up the next day
A decadent way in sight
Follow your beautiful sin
Do what you must
Cause as the end is setting in
We're covered in lust
Cause it's erotic when bones turn into dust
Immortal lust

Cause you've got nothing to win
And nothing to lose
No, you've got nothing but sin
But no-one to use
Cause you've got nothing within
And none to amuse
To abuse
Amuse

Rip it out now
Rip the doubts out
Pretty one
