

Venus, Running At Full Speed

The demons try to catch me
They're coming so close to me
All those eyes that are holding me back
I can't talk, I can't shout

All those hands holding me
I'm so cold and you're not here
I go down to the bottom of the abyss
I'm sinking into the darkness

Running at full speed when I fall (4x)

O my god I feel alone
Above my head, a scarlet veil
Turns around my head and rips my veins
Tepid blood flowing on my hands

I slowly strangle her, and see
A red river leaving its stream
Drowning plains and flowing into the sea
I feel like I'm falling free

Running at full speed when I fall...
