Venus, Running At Full Speed

The demons try to catch me They're coming so close to me All those eyes that are holding me back I can't talk, I can't shout

All those hands holding me I'm so cold and you're not here I go down to the bottom of the abyss I'm sinking into the darkness

Running at full speed when I fall (4x)

O my god I feel alone Above my head, a scarlet veil Turns around my head and rips my veins Tepid blood flowing on my hands

I slowly strangle her, and see A red river leaving its stream Drowning plains and flowing into the sea I feel like I'm falling free

Running at full speed when I fall...
