

Verbena, Postcard Blues

oh youre there again kissing the postcard blues as it say for amusement you lose still to keep your way ?
oh youre there again
well youre kissing the postcard blues comb your hair will fade and desperate the phone says you its a shame that making fun can be so true so pleasure takes its form as a ghost you dont expect
its there to keep you warm
