

Veronica Glapa, Find me now (Prod. Akon)

(AYO, AYO, Ayo Ayo)

Imagine that

Youre sleep alone

And then the soul is covers you on

Imagine that

God sent me to Ya

To beeing your angel

But sometimes has down

I shouldnt looking in your eyes

I shouldnt broke the Sides

I shouldnt let me to crushed into you

I should stay out of your way

I should hid my own soulmate

I should never be able

To you

I gave a promise that I never fell in love

But Ive been waiting so long

I cant Throw my own

But Now Its just happend

I cant turn the sidewaves

So If I must be Honest I gotta tell you

Find me Now

In the crowd

Hold me close

Be my arms

Kiss me quite (sh)

Never let me go

Touch my hand

And keep it close

Ive tried to forget but you always been the one

So I decided to leave it just in time

I let myself to be whater you will ever need

I broke surface in dark

But you gotta make step to Mua

I shouldnt looking in your eyes

I shouldnt broke the Sides

I shouldnt let me to crushed into you

I should stay out of your way

I should hid my own soulmate

I should never be able

To you
