

Veronica, Inspired Me

My world was cloudy blue, and then came you
You gave me reason to start over new I'd sacrifice for you especially
Cause your love inspired me
Your voice in the morning is the sweetest thing
And when you smile it simply makes my day
There's nothing I won't do to make you stay
Cause your love inspired me
My love, everything I am I owe to you
So please don't ever take your love away
I will give the sun, the moon to be with you
Forever and a day
Your heart's my shelter away from the storm
You're my foundation, your love made me strong
Being the woman that I am today
Cause your love inspired me
From the bottom of my heart
I don't know where to start
To thank you for all that you've done
Oh, and I wish that you could read into me
Baby, then you would see
Since you came my life has been complete
My love, everything I am I owe to you
So please don't ever take your love away
I will give the sun, the moon to be with you
Forever and a day
