

Versailles, Shadow Behind Me

No you can't hurt me,
No not no more ,
It's over now and I'm walking out the door,
And you need to realize that I live my own life,
And you need to be satisfied.
(And no I won't let you go,
And no I won't let you know.)
Here we are again walking down this lonely path,
To waste away and not understand,
And what will happen when we both run out of time,
Will we have to compromise so that we don't lose our minds,

Rephrase

This is the end of our sadness,
This is the end of our loneliness,
away away I'm gonna fly away,
Away, away, away, away
