

Versailles, Your My Disaster

Memories shelter me
In the wind cold digs in,
Feels like New York again,
No sleep till midnight,
My lips still sewn tight,
A lullaby couldnt put me to sleep tonight.

Chorus:

(And I run faster through this disaster
And I run faster through my disaster)

Hold me now, Hold me now,
I beg the thorns come out,
Hold me now, hold me down,
I belong here Im home now,
Its a long way down a long way down,
So you said go now.

Chorus

And Im moving on like a little girl.

Oh, Im crawling through.

I know your gone now so much for honesty,

But dont you dare take pity on me.

And you think its all my fault,

Well the tables will turn and in the end youll always get burned,

Like a little girl.

Chorus

Little girl why dont you give him what he wants

Give him what hes been waiting for his whole life.
