

Vert, Curtens

well I went out in the dead of night; saw you no one would know that the liquid you drink will kill you for the sake of your heart just for the sake of man when you step in front of a moving car that makes you drunk and everyone knows now

you're officially sunk

well it's curtens for you yeah, tear down the curtens let the light flow in
well it's curtens for you

I love to judge people color takes a point away you're negative for being gay and you never thought it would come to this, but it did

when you fail you're a punk
yeah, it's curtens for you tear them down
let the light flow in
it's curtens
