

Vert, Razor Blade Licks

When the sun blooms when the stars outshine the moon that's when I'm with you.
When the pieces fall back into place when nothing but despair glows off your face that's when we are split in two razor blade tongue
bleeding licks
scabbing mouth
deadly eyes and chicks
she shaves her legs for me to touch her body's next to mine she dresses in the most pulling manner lays down in the grass I fall in behind hold her close to me and she's cold as steel her eyes are darts her tongue a knife dying in pleasure with her razor blade licks razor blade tongue
lay it down, turn around and she's still there kiss her lips, her mouth's a battle ship holding her forever I wouldn't let go even dead.
her clothes, not stronger than my hands my soul, not stronger than my heart her skin is pale, and I am white I give in so easily as she slices through my eyes.
when the night is over when the trust is gone we laid in black roses we thought red. fire, fire cutting through the night we were souls in flight dropped far from sight fell from heaven's golden door now everything seems for hell blood from our dead wells your spiderweb curtains know where we are,
I can't return to joy with you we cannot run away where we hate is where we'll stay (together forever)
deadly eyes still cry
and chicks
